

METROPOLITAN POLICE SERVICE

CRIME, CONSEQUENCE, CHOICES, PERSONAL SAFETY The choices young people make will determine the life they lead

On behalf of the Metropolitan Police Service may I take this opportunity to thank you for your interest in this very important initiative.

There are in excess of 240,000 young people aged between 11 and 14 years attending secondary schools in London. To support the good work carried out by my colleagues we would like to provide each child with a unique educational handbook called 'Street Vibe'.

'Street Vibe' deals with topics such as Staying Safe and In Control, Alcohol, Drugs and Solvent Misuse, Car Crime, Shoplifting, Racial Harassment, Bullying, Anti-Social Behaviour, Trespass and Vandalism.

The handbook is designed to complement the Personal, Social and Health Education syllabus and covers hazards that young people are likely to encounter in their everyday lives.

For those of you continuing to help us educate local children on important safety matters - thank you. If this is your first opportunity to become involved, your support is invaluable.

This initiative complements our policing philosophy of being community focused and utilising partnerships to reduce crime to make London a safer place to live. Obviously, young people are a valued part of the community and our ultimate intention is to make them feel safe, involved and reassured.

A member of the The Children's Safety Education Foundation will contact you within the next few days to establish the level of your support.

Yours sincerely,
